

Ohio Electrocutes Woman, 26, for "Love" Slaying DISABLED MAN, 66, HANGS SELF

PAYS EXTREME PENALTY: Mrs. Betty Butler, 26, Cincinnati, Ohio, paid with her life by electrocution last week for the cold blooded killing of an older woman said to be her female lover.

She was the first colored woman ever electrocuted in the Buckeye state and the second woman to die in the chair this year for murder.

Governor Frank J. Lausche refused last-minute pleas to commute her punishment to life imprisonment.

Young Mother, Female Lover Dies In Chair

COLUMBUS, O.—A smiling 26-year-old mother of two children who strangled and drowned her female lover in a Cincinnati park Sept. 6, 1952, died in the electric chair for her crime Friday night of last week.

Mrs. Betty Butler, Cincinnati, became the third woman and the first Negro to die in the Ohio Penitentiary electric chair as Governor Frank J. Lausche denied impassioned pleas that he commute the death sentence. She was the second woman to meet death in the chair this year.

The frail, desolate woman was convicted of first degree murder April 18, this year, in the death of Mrs. Evelyn Clark, 33. Mercy was not recommended by the jury.

The electrocuted woman was charged with killing her paramour and benefactor as a number of horrified spectators looked on.

Name Smith Cheatham 1954 "Father of Year"

When the community pauses in the hectic flight of time to pay tribute Sunday to one of God's most useful creations—Father—it may well consider the virtues of Smith Cheatham, who has been nominated by acclaim as "Father of the Year."

A modest, patient man with a high vision and ideals of citizenship that stimulate in him indefatigable energy, Mr. Cheatham not only has been eminently successful in rearing four children of his own, but evinces a loving and abiding interest in all children of the community.

Mr. Cheatham's interest in helping develop religious, civic and social responsibility in his neighbors expresses itself in intense activities as a member of Garfield Baptist Church, superintendent of its Sunday school, active member of the Senate Avenue YMCA and the general chairman of its recent membership drive, and as president of the Southeast Civic League.

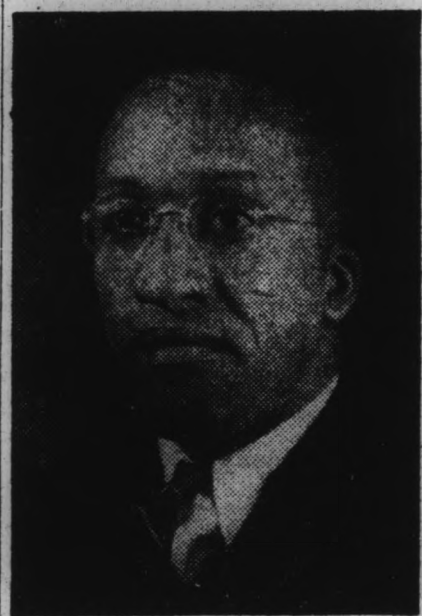

BORN IN TRIGG County, Ky., he came here with his wife, Anna, in 1922. He has been employed for the past 27 years by the Stumpf Brothers Packing Company, where he is rated one of the best employees.

The Cheathams have four children, two boys and two girls. James, the oldest at 21, a graduate of Attucks high school, works at the Army Finance Center and recently completed three years of Army service, almost a year of which was spent in Korea.

Reginald, 15, is a student at Manual high school as is the younger daughter, Rosie, also 15. The older daughter, 17-year-old Janet, was a graduate this month of Manual and will continue her studies at Indiana University Extension in the fall.

Mr. Cheatham is justly proud of his family, the members of which are all imbued with the purpose not only to make a good life for themselves, but to contribute their utmost to the common good of all by fullest use of whatever talents God gave them.

Property Owners Given 30 Days To Oust "Boots"

By JIM CUMMINGS

Operators of the city's multi-million-dollar bootleg cab business have 30 days to cease operations, Assistant City Attorney Rufus C. Kuykendall declared Wednesday.

If after the prescribed length of time the illegitimate operators are still doing business, padlock proceedings will be initiated against the owners of the properties from which the boots operate.

The Board of Public Safety on Wednesday authorized Kuykendall to notify the property owners and start proceedings against them after 30 days.

KUYKENDALL TURNED OVER to the board a report of a full investigation made two months ago by Detective Sgts. James C. Fox and Richard Caine, internal security division of the police department.

He listed 13 bootleg cab stands which he said furnish between 400 and 450 boots to all parts of the city and rake in about $1,000,000 a year. He also listed the names of the stand operators and he owners of the properties.

They are as follows: B. & M. Cigar Store, operated by Arnold Bryant at 2461 Northwestern avenue; property owned by Louis T. and Helen L. Maxey. An "exchange" operated by Mary Hayes at 2511 Northwestern avenue; property owned by Mary Elizabeth Ray.

An "exchange" operated by Harold L. Bowles at 2706 Northwestern avenue; property owned by Sea H. Ferguson.

Mrs. Thompson told the officer her husband, Thomas, 30, beat her with his fists, then shot her in each leg to keep her from leaving the house. She said this happened Friday night, June 11, and claimed her mate stood guard over her until he fell asleep Saturday night and she was able to slip out. (Recorder Photo by Jim Cummings.) Wealthy Farmer Chained, Burned To Death In Ark.

The brother of an Indianapolis housewife, a prosperous farmer of Marion, Ark., was found dead on his 600-acre farm June 8, The Recorder learned this week.

Mrs. Lee Anna Wellington, 2308 N. Rural, who returned from the scene Saturday, said information given her there indicated her brother, Isador Banks, 59, had burned to death while chained to a tree sometime between June 5 when last seen by his wife and June 8 when his charred body was found.

The Crittenden County, Ark., coroner's report said Banks had been murdered by a "party or parties unknown."

Mrs. Wellington said Sheriff Cecil Goodwin told the family he was taking no action because "the FBI had taken over the investigation."

However, the special agent in charge of the FBI office in Little Rock denied in a phone conversation with The Recorder Thursday that his office had entered the case, although a report and appeal had been made by the Little Rock branch of the NAACP.

"We don't have jurisdiction unless it is shown there has been a violation of civil rights, and so far none has been shown," the FBI official said.

BANKS who operated a large cotton farm bordering a prominent highway, was reported missing late Saturday night, June 5, when he failed to return home as was his custom for the evening meal.

A white neighbor who operates a farm adjoining Banks' found the body the following Tuesday.

A heavy chain bound it to a tree. The flesh was badly seared almost crisp, authorities said. Continued on Page 3

Father of 13, Unable to Work, Takes Own Life

A Southside father of 13, brooding because an accident on his job a month ago had incapacitated him and he was unable to return to work, hanged himself Monday morning.

The body of 66-year-old James Evans, who joined church Monday night, was found hanging from a rope in the basement of his home at 824 S. Senate avenue.

His 20-year-old daughter, Miss Frances Evans, heard a "thump" in the basement shortly after breakfast and called the mother, Mrs. Pinkie Evans, 59. They went downstairs to investigate and found Evans hanging from a crossbeam.

The frantic mother and daughter tried desperately to remove the small rope from around Mr. Evans' neck but the man was so heavy they couldn't manage it.

Sobbing hysterically Mrs. Evans ran to the home of a neighbor where she found one of her eight sons, Rufus Evans.

Rufus and a friend, William Harris, 820 S. Senate avenue, went to the basement and Rufus cut the body down with a paring knife.

AS THE MEN carried the body up the basement stairs, police summoned to the scene met them.

Officers applied oxygen through an inhalator but were unsuccessful in their attempts to revive the man.

Dr. James Anderson, deputy coroner, pronounced Mr. Evans dead and released the body to the family. Dr. Anderson attributed the death to strangulation.

Miss Frances Evans told police her father had told her shortly before his death that if he had some poison he would take it.

The family said the head of the house had been despondent since May 18 when he was injured.

Employed by the Barnett Bottling Company here for 19 years, Mr. Evans was unloading bottles at Anderson on the day of the accident. It reportedly was dark in the building and the elderly man stepped off into a hole and fell "quite a distance" to a sub-basement.

He suffered a fractured left shoulder and concussion.

UNDER THE CARE of the company's physician, he was scheduled to return to his job around June 21. He didn't want to wait that long, according to his family.

Rev. G. M. Mimms, pastor of Bethesda Baptist Church, and the missionary society of the church visited the Evans home Monday night. Mr. Evans was received into fellowship with the church and was scheduled to be baptized at the church Sunday.

Born in Madison Ga., he had lived here since 1922.

Mr. Evans was to be buried in New Crown cemetery Saturday afternoon, following funeral services in the Craig Funeral Home.

Survivors besides the wife include eight sons: M/Sgt. James Evans, Jr., serving with the Army in France; Capt. Oscar Evans, in Japan; Sgt. Edward Evans, Camp Campbell, Ky.; and Joseph, Rufus, Thomas, Ralph and Leonard Evans; and five daughters, Mrs. Annie Primm, Mrs. Jessie Clark and Mrs. Ceffie Leake, and Miss Julia Evans and Miss Frances Evans, all of Indianapolis.

Tit-for-Tat Brings Peace, No Suicide

A Northside husband who police believed tried to get even with his pregnant wife by reporting she was about to kill herself and her 20-month-old baby Monday morning, ended up in jail.

Audrey Moore, 45, 2614 Rader, was arrested Monday on an assault and battery warrant, that had been sworn against him by his wife, Pearl, 26, June 1.

Drawn to Burdial parkway and the Indianapolis Water Company Canal by a caller who said a woman was about to throw her baby and herself into the canal, police found Mrs. Moore seated on a bench near the parkway. Her baby was at her side.

Officers questioned her and were satisfied she had no intention of taking her life.

As they took Mrs. Moore and her baby home in the squad car, Mrs. Moore spotted her husband, day school has received proper training at home or not."

As president of the Southeast Civic League, Mr. Cheatham has been successful in purchasing two lots at Minnesota and Colby streets where the league will build a recreation center for neighborhood children. Work is expected to start so soon as a building permit, already applied for, is issued.

The league under his leadership has amassed more than $1,000 cash to start the project.

Mr. Cheatham, a member of the NAACP and the Fidelity Lodge of Masons, lives with his family at 1138 S. Randolph street. Although he has taken little active interest in political organizations, he has faithfully exercised his civic duty in voting at all elections.

Asked how he planned to spend Father's Day, he replied:

"I shall enjoy it as usual, directing the Sunday school, attending church, being happy with my family and helping with words or actions anyone who comes my way and chances to be in need."

others while making his way through life. Mr. Cheatham is an early age assumed leadership in worthwhile affairs of community life about him.

"I always felt that someone must do constructive things, so naturally I soon found myself taking part in many activities," he says.

He is a deacon of the Garfield church and has served the past 15 years as superintendent of the Sunday school, which enjoys a reputation of being one of the best conducted schools in the city.

MR. CHEATHAM ABIDES by Biblical injunction, "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Students in the school are orderly, studious and show the proper respect for their elders.

The Sunday school leader has gained from his long experience a belief that much of the juvenile delinquency prevalent today is due to the negligence of parents.

"Children are not inherently worse than those of the former generation," he observes.

"The trouble lies in the failure of parents to discipline their children properly. I can tell within a short time whether a new student in our Sunday school is a good or bad influence."

Dies In Chair

strangled Mrs. Clark with her own scarf into unconsciousness and then held the woman's limp body under water of the shallow lake in Cincinnati's rural Sharon Park.

GOVERNOR LAUSCHE, after a conference with members of the Pardons and Paroles Board on Friday noon, refused to spare the life of the young woman.

Having maintained a cold silence since her trial, refusing to see or talk to anyone besides members of her family, the condemned woman was visited by her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sheraton; her husband, Henry Butler, and their two small children before she was brought under guard from the Marysville Women's Reformatory.

She had eaten a last meal of scrambled eggs, cheese, apricots, toast and a glass of milk.

She resembled a teen-age bobby-soxer in a black dress with red and white spots, black and white saddle oxfords and hite socks.

Unaided, she sat down in the wooden chair and as the electrodes were clamped to her legs she repeated a prayer after one of the two chaplains who had led her into the death chamber.

Father C. V. Lucier intoned, "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you," as the metal death mask was drawn over her face. Father Lucier then asked her if she had made her peace with God.

Mrs. Butler opened her mouth in a broad smile, clutched a rosary in her left hand and a handkerchief in the other—but spoke no word.

She embraced Catholicism during her wait in the death house.

After three charges of electricity passed through her body in a minute, Dr. Robert H. Brooks, prison physician, pronounced the woman dead. He performed four checks before doing so.

INCIDENTS THAT LED TO Mrs. Butler's electrocution started with her meeting of Mrs. Clark a month before the slaying.

Estranged from her husband, friendless and with no means of support for herself or her children, she had just returned from Cleveland when she met the other woman and told her of her sorry plight.

Mrs. Clark paid Betty Butler's rent and bought food, but later demanded that Betty induce an unnatural sex relations with her.

She allowed two intimacies, Betty said, but Evelyn Clark demanded more, offering her $15. "I want you to be my woman," she said Evelyn told her.

During the trial, love letters written by Evelyn to Betty were presented in evidence. In one of them she said, "Baby, I love you and will never let you go. You are my idea of Paradise. All the money I have will be spent on you. I will meet you anywhere—night, yard, alley or anywhere."

ON THE DAY of the slaying, Evelyn and Betty went with another woman, Deese Ivory, to Sharon Lake. Betty and Evelyn had been drinking.

While in a boat the two began quarreling and Mrs. Ivory put them out on the bank.

Betty said she went into a nearby woods and Evelyn followed her, demanding an intimacy then and there.

They began fighting and Betty strangled Evelyn with her own scarf, then dragged her limp body over 100 feet to the edge of the lake and held her head under the water until she drowned.

Witnesses said she exclaimed excitedly, "If I can't strangle her I'll drown her."

She was also quoted as saying after the killing, "My work is done."

Kuykendall, who handles all legal work for the Board of Safety, told The Recorder the drive against the boots is getting in full swing now after a six-week layoff caused by the transit strike.

"We didn't push it during the strike because we wanted the people to have benefit of all possible transportation during the period of hardship," he said.

OPERATORS OF legitimate taxi companies pledged their full support in the war against the boots a week before the transit strike started.

A group representing legal operators appeared before the Board of Safety and volunteered to supply information on the illegal operators' activities.

Carl Butler, City Cab Co., led the group which included John Hobbs, Byrd Cab Co., William Bolen, Bell Air Cab Co., and Kenneth Grant, Safety Cab Co.

Paul J. Shick, president of the board, heralded action as "very fine and civic-minded" and promised the board would do all in its power to get the boots off the streets.

The legitimate operators claimed the bootleg cabs were running them out of business. They said the investment of two-way radios and other modern devices in the cabs was a losing proposition because of the boots.

Kuykendall and Jack Ryan, city prosecutor, were scheduled to meet again this week in an effort to lay more plans for their concerted attack on the boots.

Baptist Congress in Texas Draws 10,000

By WILLA THOMAS

The golden anniversary of the Sunday School and BYPU Congress of the National Baptist Convention of America closed Sunday in San Antonio, Tex.

The host pastor, Rev. P. S. Wilkerson, pastor of New Light Baptist Church there; the co-host, Dr. C. W. Black, pastor of First Baptist Church, along with ministers and laymen of San Antonio, did everything possible to make the delegates feel comfortable and at home.

Seven thousand delegates and 3,000 visitors from 31 states attended the historic event, which closed with a mass meeting in Library Hall highlighted by the closing sermon by Rev. Robert W. Rowe, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Austin, Tex.

MUSIC was furnished by the choir of his church and the National Congress Chorus under direction of Mrs. Edna H. Porter of Los Angeles, national chorister. Special tribute was paid to Dr. Henry Allen Boyd of Nashville, Congress secretary for 50 years. He was the only person attending who had not missed a meeting in 50 years.

He was commended for the outstanding way in which he has presented the denomination throughout the world and for the fine place he had made for the youth of the Baptist Church in appearing on Congress programs.

THIS WRITER, representing the Metoka and Galeda department of the Congress presented a token of appreciation to Dr. Boyd.

Another Indianapolis delegate, Mrs. Tatie Thomas, Congress conductor who has served for 30 years as head of the department, was presented a token of appreciation by Mrs. Fannie Sanders, Nashville, on behalf of the Metoka and Galeda department.

Mrs. Priscilla Dean Lewis, also of Indianapolis, was re-elected to serve as secretary of the daily vacation department of the Congress.

More than 500 children were entertained last Saturday at a party by Dr. H. A. Boyd, Moss H. Kendrick and Lee A. Ward, representatives of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, gave cokes to the group.

The Congress, known to the world over as the only religious summer school of methods in a class by itself, started 50 years ago under the late Dr. R. H. Boyd.

The convention delegates were complimented by city officials, and the Congress was praised as being the best group ever assembled in San Antonio.

Plan Father's Day Plea for Aid In Negro College Fund Campaign

Dr. Lawless Wins Spingarn Medal

NEW YORK (ANP)—The Spingarn Medal was awarded last week to Dr. Theodore K. Lawless, famed Chicago dermatologist.

Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, announced that Dr. Lawless was selected by a committee from among a large number of nominations.

The medal, presented annually to a Negro American for distinguished achievement, will be formally presented to Dr. Lawless at the 45th annual convention of the NAACP in Dallas, June 29-July 4.

THE CHICAGO scientist will be the 39th recipient of the medal which was instituted in 1914 by the late J. E. Spingarn, then chairman of the board of directors of the NAACP.

The award, a gold medal, was established to recognize and reward "distinguished merit and achievement among American Negroes" and to stimulate "the ambition of colored youth."

This year's winner has earned membership in several professional societies. Among them are the American Medical Association and the International Congress of Dermatology. He is a diplomat of the American Board of Dermatology and Syphilology, a consultant of the United States Chemical Warfare Board, and a teacher of dermatology at the Medical School of Northwestern University.

DR. LAWLESS also has contributed extensively to the leading journals of dermatology in America and abroad.

A graduate of Talladega College and of the Northwestern University Medical School, Dr. Lawless did graduate work in skin diseases and syphilology at the Vanderbilt clinic of Columbia University; the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston; the St. Louis Hospital in Paris; the Kaiser Joseph Hospital in Vienna, and at other clinics and institutions in Germany, Switzerland and elsewhere.

The noted physician also is active in civic and school affairs.

Pastors of many local churches will join others throughout the nation in making a pulpit plea on Father's Day, June 20, for support of the Negro College Fund.

Announcement by the local fund chairman, Fitzhugh T aylor and co-chairman, Rev. Clinton M. Marsh, pastor of the Witherspoon Presbyterian, this week said that $36,564 has been raised toward a local goal of $50,000.

A statement issued by the president of the United Negro College Fund, Dr. F. D. Patterson calling attention to the necessity of maintaining the Negro college fund members said:

"On Monday, May 17, 1954, in a simple but majestic announcement that went to the hearts of millions throughout the world, the Supreme Court declared segregation in public education, unconstitutional.

This ruling, when fully effective, will remove the last major legal barrier to the efforts of Negro citizens to obtain equality of educational opportunity.

"With the new opportunities provided by the decision will come new responsibilities for the Fund's member colleges. They are preparing now to meet the increasing demands by the youth of the nation for higher education.

"WITH YOUR SUPPORT in the first ten years of the Fund's existence, the educational programs of these colleges have been improved and their facilities expanded.

"As the decision takes effect, they can move forward on a firm foundation to meet their increased responsibilities to the nation's youth whom they may then serve, without restrictions as to race or color.

"There are several facts which emerge clearly for the foreseeable future. Today, the number of high school students seeking college education in the South, where the Fund's member colleges are located, is greater than ever before in history.

"Experts predict, on the basis of present population statistics, that during the next ten years, college and university enrollment will increase from the present two and one-half million to three million.

"By 1970, it is expected to double to five million. Not only is every accredited college already in existence needed, but present facilities will have to be expanded to meet this upward pressure of students seeking higher education.

"THE ELIMINATION of racial restrictions will not remove the economic pressures these institutions share with other privately supported colleges. Nor will it remove the dollar barrier to education for Negro youth.

"Also, it will not correct, overnight, the long neglect suffered by Negro youth of the South in educational provisions in primary and secondary schools which have resulted in their need for corrective programs provided by the private colleges now serving them.

"These facts, along with the many problems involved in making the Supreme Court decision effective in those states where segregation is practiced, makes one thing certain: the major responsibility for first class higher education of Negroes of the South will continue to fall, for some time to come, upon the colleges that have served them during the past years.

"The immediate task ahead, then, for those of us engaged in the work of the Fund, is to redouble our efforts to meet the challenge of the Court's ruling. As we dedicate ourselves to this larger role, we hope we may count upon your Curiously, many of the 50 people employed by Banks had been working throughout the day before near the spot where his body was found.

Born in Rome, Ga., Banks went to Marion when 17 years old and began farming a small plot of ground.

He extended his holdings to their present size under the liberal plans of the Roosevelt Administration, becoming recognized as a good business man and successful cotton farmer.

MRS. WELLINGTON and her daughter, Mrs. Naomi Price, living in Barrington Heights apartments, attended funeral services June 10 at Marion.

They expressed amazement at the seeming unwillingness of the sheriff to make a genuine effort to solve the murder mystery.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

With graduation uppermost in everyone's mind these days, what more natural than that top billing in this specious and facetious column should be given over to a particularly nice graduation party, that of Miss Betty Jo Radcliffe, a 1954 graduate of Shortridge high school, given by her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Batties, and cousin, Paul Terry Batties, Friday night.

The Batties home was decorated with daisies, palms and fernery, forming a beautiful background for the youngsters who attended in summer formal attire. Music for the affair was furnished by Cantrell Mitz and his combo.

Three groups of the younger set attended, ranging from college students to a few junior high.

Among them were Carolyn and Shirley Jones, Jacqueline Durham, Katherine Neal, Marlyne and Joann Harper, Maye Hall, Sandra Hayes, Wilma Porter, Sylvia Freeman, Julia Cole, Harriett Blackburn, Ann Marie Lane, Betty Ann Bates, Delores Frazier, Mary Starks, Elroy Woods, Walter Blackburn, John Tuggle, Morton Goode, Lawrence Ridley, Richard Owens, Bobby Allen, Leon Bates, Marcus Stewart, Jr., Charles Rent, Bobby Colbert, James Smith, Fernie King and Garland Jones.

Juniors attending were Paul Terry, host for the group; Sherron Betty Judy Marbury and Elson Benedict, while university students were Virgil Freeman, Demetrius Smith and Frederick Smith.

Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Batties were Harry Radcliffe, Betty Jo's father; Mrs. Daugherty Moore, her aunt, and Mrs. Joel McCree.

Betty Jo, who, incidentally, finished high school in three years, was recipient of a memorial scholarship given to Attucks high school for presentation to a worthy student in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Willa Mae Terry Radcliffe, who served a number of years as head of the art department at Attucks.

She plans to matriculate at Indiana University, specializing in fine arts.

By the way, speaking of the younger set, it's nice to see Charles Edward Harry, IV, back home after three years in the Army. He was a lieutenant at Camp Gordon, Ga., in the Army Signal Corps when he was released.

And leaping from the younger set to one not quite so young we take note of the very beautiful celebration Saturday night of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling I. McElwaine of Lafayette, friends of many years' standing, combined their wonderful abilities to entertain at dinner honoring the Halls at their home.

The couple received many beautiful gifts, flowers and 25 silver dollars. Mrs. Hall's son, William Childress of Louisville, who was unable to attend, sent a beautiful bouquet of white roses while the McElwaines, thinking perhaps of her pride in her really unusual rose garden, decorated the cake with pink roses.

Enjoying the affair were Messrs. and Mesdames Henry L. Greer, Walker Corbett, Robert L. Brockenburr, Joseph B. Timberlake and

REV. L. C. WHITLEY SURPRISES WIFE

Rev. L. C. Whitley surprised his wife, Hattie, with a birthday party Tuesday night at his barbecue stand, 507 North West street. Taking Mrs. Whitley out for what she thought was just a summer night drive, Rev. Whitley "dropped by" the stand, where the lights were darkened.

As they entered, the roomful of guests greeted her with "Happy Birthday to You" and a shower of gifts. A picnic of luncheon of fried chicken, macaroni salad, hot rolls, cake, ice cream and soft drinks was enjoyed by about 40 guests.

Mesdames Jackie Hazlewood and Iris Hawkins, niece of Rev. Whitley, assisted as hostesses and planned the menu.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

The educational committee's breakfast card party last Saturday is the talk of the town. The largest attendance ever registered enjoyed the lovely breakfast, and over 20 of those present received beautiful prizes. Mrs. Flossie Harris, chairman of the committee, says the members worked very hard for the successful party and are very proud of it.

Mrs. Emma McKnight, chairman of the health and welfare committee, was able to be out for the regular FAC meeting Monday night for the first time in over four months. She expressed deep appreciation for the way FAC members and friends have "stood by."

When Mrs. McKnight met with her committee last week for the first time in several months, the group was so happy they surprised her with a beautiful gift.

The committee has almost completed plans for its annual trip to the Farm Colony with a party for the residents. Donations will be made to the Penny Ice Fund.

Mrs. Catherine Grissom, a member of the program committee, brought a very delightful reading Monday night. At the close of the meeting she served refreshments. Attendance and door prizes were won by Mesdames Clemmie Perry, Hassie Pierson and Luella Harper.

The Young Adults are moving their annual garden party inside this year. June 27 is the day, and the FAC Auditorium the place. Don't miss this treat!

Mrs. Jessie Cunningham is now recuperating at home.

The Fall Creek Republican club will sponsor a tea at the club home Sunday honoring Father's Day. The public is invited.

D. W. D. Hector reports his wife, Nora, has returned from Chicago, where she underwent an eye operation.

Metropolitan Church Lists Delegates For Convention

Sweet is pastor, had as delegates for the National Sunday School and BTU Congress at San Antonio, Texas, Rev. and Mrs. Sweet, Mesdames Eliza Sadler, Katherine Clark and McCallam Burton, who was to appear on program; Miss Joyce Long and Charles Smithers.

Dance Workshop Recital Outdoes All Previous Shows In Excellence

This year's Dance Workshop recital, presented Monday night in Caleb Mills Hall before a packed house, has completely vindicated the efforts of the Dance Workshop founder and director, Mrs. Billie Smith Douglass, in preparing masses of students for public appearances annually for the past ten years.

One is able to see an amazing amount of improvement and can realize the aims and labors of the dance studio staff, which includes Jon Lei and Wilma Porter in addition to Mrs. Douglass.

Also, one is able to see in those students who have appeared in show after show increasing signs of professionalism, advancement of their technique and genuine showmanship. The only complaint one can possibly lodge now is that the recitals should be given more often!

Particularly gratifying was the appearance of a few boys, most of them showing aptitude and one or two genuine talent. Theodore Lasley and Leroy Fontenau, doing a clever tap sequence to "Drag-n-et," indicate they may become really decent dancers.

Delmas Harris displays a distinctive bent for modern interpretative dancing, and, with continued work, has considerable possibilities. What in earlier appearances struck this writer as mere ability to keep in time with the music has developed into noteworthy stage technique.

Eleanor Swats, another attention-compelling student, has risen well above the throng, as have also Helen Baker and Sandra Hayes. They are, of course, advanced students and show the result of good, careful training. They infuse into that training, however, personalities and individualisms which make for enjoyable viewing. Delores Seath's impresses more than formerly, and Judy Garvin makes her imprint in one's memory.

Wilma Porter, in whose ability Mrs. Douglass has shown her confidence by making her an assistant teacher, justifies that trust. She showed an unsuspected flair for good comedy in "Cornflakes" and was lovely in the pas de deux in "Ebbtide" with Lei.

Mrs. Douglass, taking this writer to task for a comment last year on the use of arms, has shown she cannot be outdone! In no case was there any gaucheness in arm movements, and among the older students the arm movements were perfectly beautiful.

Also admirable was the poise and technique of the more advanced students. The art of toe-dancing is one which every teacher strives for but few really get. It was a clever bit of choreographing to give plenty of opportunity for display of poise.

Mrs. Douglass herself deserves high praise for reminding us she can dance. Too often teachers, both of dance and applied music, become so involved in teaching they cease performing. They shouldn't.

Hope that the teacher's modesty will not be offended, one becomes bold and notes the exquisite exhibition of the "body beautiful" in "Elaine," a dazzling series of lifts and extensions done with Jon Lei. She should appear more frequently.

When one realizes that two such talented persons are giving their best to Indianapolis, he begins to hope the knell has not been too resoundingly sounded on the cultural life of the city.

The amazing thing about Lei's dancing is that he refuses to let it get in a rut. While concentrating primarily on modern with enough ballet to give it authenticity, he constantly finds new media to portray ideas. As a comic "Judge" in the ballet "The Art Gallery," he was superb.

Not the last of the show's virtues was its beautiful staging. Caleb Mills Hall has a wonderfully equipped stage, and it was wise of the planners to take full advantage of the facilities. Brilliant lighting effects added tremendously to the show's over-all excellence.

Outstanding among the many beautifully lighted scenes was the use of the spotlight on Delmas Harris during the "Tales of the '30s" first part, casting shadows from the supporting cast and making a strong chiaroscuro painting. The dim lights with two spots for "Elaine" showed real knowledge of effect.

Another touch of wisdom was the use of a plain black background curtain, changed only for "Elaine" to a Times Square scene. The full impact of the gorgeous costuming, staging and lighting was thus given full rein.

All the foregoing suggests a show which was wonderful if it was; and the city, as well as the parents who are spending their money to have their children so well trained, can take pride in a beautiful production.

The combination of Billie Smith Douglass and Jon Lei is a happy one for the city. We can hope it continues for many years to come, as the residents of Indianapolis are the beneficiaries. (RCH)

"A Confused Youth in a Confused World" was the subject used by Atty. Mahala Dickerson Beckwith, who was introduced by your Scribe on Sunday afternoon when the Jubilee Singers sponsored a baby contest and tea at the Women's Club Home.

Mrs. Beckwith went on to say we are fumbling and feeling our way, and a child can open our eyes to things that are wrong with us. The Ole Scribe would like to use this entire column for the address given by the speaker, but no can do.

A number of singing groups appeared on the program, along with Mesdames R. T. Robinson, Frances Gates, Essie Poole and Eva Turner and Rev. P. C. Owens, pastor of Eastern Star Baptist Church. Mrs. Florence Jefferson Green was master of ceremonies.

Babies winning the contest were Don Wesley Briggs and Cassandra Frances Cole.

Mrs. Ardella Walker, 2408 Martindale avenue, mother of David M. Walker, was called recently to the bedside of a sister who suffered a stroke at Morgantown, W. Va. Mrs. Walker is expected to be away four or five months.

Mrs. Haidee Wilson, 2436 Hillside avenue, has returned from Georgia after a brief visit with her mother. Mrs. Nan Forehand, who was reported doing fine after an illness of several weeks.

Have you heard the Sacred Four No. 2? Well, I have not, but if they are as good as the No. 1 group, they must be on the ball. Plan to hear them Sunday at Bethlehem Baptist Church in a full musical with the Southern Harmonizers at 3:30. Mrs. Minnie Shaw is sponsor.

Calling all ushers Sunday, when the Metropolitan Baptist Church usher board is host to several groups of ushers at 3. The pastor, Rev. William Sweatt, will deliver the group's 31st anniversary sermon, and the City Usher Board Union will be special guests. The Southern Harmonizers will be in charge of services for the ushers at 8. Mrs. Elizabeth Ford and Charlie Shields are serving on the program committee. Samuel D. Collier is president.

All business places and residences are urged to register now for the grand contest in the clean-up and beautification program, which closes July 25, when tokens will be awarded at Douglass Park. The affair will also mark the grand opening of the park.

Several church choirs are expected to appear. All choirs and choruses which can serve should notify the Scribe not later than July 9, so their names can appear on the program in the papers.

A call meeting will be held Monday at the home of Mrs. Anna Mae Horton, 2718 Columbia avenue, vice-president of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League, which is sponsoring the drive.

The youth department of Second Christian Church will be guests of the junior choir of Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday night. A playlet "Mixed-Up Family" will be featured, and musical numbers will be rendered by a piano duo and string trio. Mrs. Ada L. Thompson, very active in YWCA and church work, is sponsor of the youth department.

Several meetings will be open to the public, according to Mrs. Laura L. Hughes, president of the local Poro Beauty and Barber school.

Outstanding among them is a special breakfast and devotion session planned for Sunday morning, July 11, from 9:30 to noon. Chairmen are Mesdames Sarah Hayes, Mary Bussie, Bessie Ford and Elsie Mae Wilson, and the program will be sponsored by the alumni chapter of Pi Omicron Rho Omicron sorority.

Rev. John Patton, former district superintendent of the Methodist Church, will be principal speaker, and the program will include other talks and music by the Sacred Four Quartet No. 2.

Scheduled for Sunday afternoon at Barnes Methodist Church is a mass meeting, also open to the public.

The educational program and model school to be conducted throughout the convention will be directed by Joseph Manson of St. Louis, nationally known stylist. Mrs. Fessie G. Ray is convention chairman, and Mrs. Idella Black is co-chairman. Mrs. Louella Smith is president of the local Poro chapter, while Mrs. Vivian Owsley is director of publicity.

afternoon service.

"Life is a sea—wide, deep and treacherous," said Rev. D. B. Dudley, pastor of Galilee Church, last Sunday morning. "No man rules the sea, but fits his ship to harmonize with it. The sea is kind and gentle as long as we cooperate, but can become a vast force of destruction. One must seek Divine Aid, and then he can bring his sea of life to a peaceful haven. That, I think is food for thought!"

bade Armenians to leave the country.

Imbued, however, with the same sort of spirit which has made the American Negro raise himself above the niche originally granted him, the young Seraph was jailed 23 times before his third attempted flight to the seacoast was successful. One of the jails was the prison in which the Apostle Paul was held.

Seraph Ashjian was 17 and prematurely white-haired when he finally made it to shipboard and then to Connecticut, U. S. A.

His coming to Indianapolis was a matter of deliberate choice.

came here in 1898 after having read library books to select the "typical American city."

WITH A WIDE knowledge of Oriental rugs, he operated a rug store at 210 North Meridian street until his retirement in 1941.

In real Frederick Douglass style, he worked tirelessly to help other Armenians enjoy the benefits of American citizenship as he had. He helped many of his countrymen to get their citizenship papers here and become adjusted.

He was a member of All Souls Unitarian Church, the Mystic Tie Masonic Lodge and was a 32nd degree Mason.

Active also in real estate, he had established friendships among Negroes through his fair dealing.

Rev. Jack Mendelsohn, pastor of All Souls, officiated at the last rites, Tuesday, at Flanner and Koch hospital, St. Louis, and Dr.

Buchanan Fall Creek Mortuary. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Eunice Ashjian; two daughters, Mrs. Charles S. Preston and Mrs. James C. Barnett, and two grandsons, Gregor Preston and James B. Barnett.

His son-in-law, Charles S. Preston, is sports editor of The Recorder.

When Thieves Fall Out—Justice Reigns

A falling out among five young thieves Saturday night resulted in the group's undoing.

When a dispute arose between the teenage members of the gang as they looted stands in the City Market, four of the youths employed unusual measures in silencing a displeasing member of their band.

The outcast 16-year-old was found tied up and gagged behind one of the Market counters when workers went to work Sunday morning.

The boy told police he and his companions stayed in the Market after closing Saturday. He admitted breaking into a cigar and tobacco and soft drinks stand.

An investigation showed four show cases had been broken into.

Speedy Trial

said: "An American citizen is entitled to live without a Damocles sword hanging over his head."

Justice James A. Emmert in his opinion declared:

"The courts should not legislate or ignore the plain mandates of the Indiana Constitution dealing with hard cases. The unusual delay here was not due to the mentally defective appellant (Taylor)."

He agreed with Judge S. Flanagan and Frank Gikison that Taylor should be freed.

TAYLOR'S INVOLVEMENT began with his arrest April 16, 1950, on a charge of burglarizing a home on N. College avenue.

By a court order he was held in the detention ward of General hospital as a mental case and in July, 1950, psychiatrists adjudged him of unsound mind and therefore legally incompetent.

Judge Pro Tem Edwin McClure of Criminal Court 1 ordered him committed to the Indiana hospital for the criminally insane at Michigan City prison.

In September, 1951, Judge Chamberlin received a report from the hospital authorities declaring Taylor had regained his sanity, whereupon he ordered him returned for trial.

At a trial Oct. 17, 1951, Attorney Lewis entered a plea of not guilty and not guilty by reason of insanity.

Judge Chamberlin took the case under advisement and ordered Taylor committed to the Epileptic Village at New Castle.

While a prisoner at the village, Taylor escaped and was apprehended in Ohio.

THE FOLLOWING April, 1953, Taylor was again brought before the Criminal Court judge with the result that Judge Chamberlin found him guilty, imposed a sentence of 10 to 20 years on a charge of first degree burglary, but continued "this matter so long as he remains in the Epileptic Village."

It was at this point in the legal drama that the Supreme Court judges said the trial judge lost jurisdiction and engaged in unusual delay for which Taylor was not responsible.

Attorneys Hooper and Lewis filed motion for a new trial, which was denied.

The patient lawyers, interested principally in getting tangled viewpoints of law settled, filed the appeal with the Supreme Court last fall and presented oral arguments before the high court in February.

Many local legal experts hailed the decision as designed to end the widespread practice of numerous delays and postponements in the trial of criminal cases in Marion County.

Charge Man With Battering Wife

A Westside man, accused by his common-law wife of beating her face to a pulp with his fists and then shooting her twice, was placed under $1,500 bond Monday when he appeared before Judge Scott McDonald in Municipal Court 4 on charges of assault and battery with intent to murder.

Thomas Thompson, Jr., 30, 457 Agnes, was charged with beating and shooting Ludie Thompson in the couple's home Friday night of last week. His case was continued to Monday, June 21.

Thompson was arrested Sunday morning at his home by homicide Detective Sgts. Randolph Schubert and Myron Partlow.

Mrs. Thompson limped into police headquarters shortly before midnight Saturday night and reported her mate had shot her.

TALKING through lips swollen at least twice their normal size and peering through blue-outlined eyes that were swollen to narrow slits, the thin woman said her husband had threatened to kill her "because he didn't want me any more."

He beat her murderously, she said.

After the beating, she alleged, he stood her against the refrigerator and shot her in both legs, each time aiming carefully at the calf of the leg with his single-shot .22-caliber rifle.

Thompson then made his wife go to bed, the woman claimed, and would not allow her to leave the house to seek medical aid.

Hold Rites For Rev. John Craven Veteran Pastor

"He labored mightily and faithfully in the Master's vineyard," was the substance of tributes paid Rev. John L. Craven at funeral services at St. Paul AME Church on Wednesday.

Rev. Craven, 84, 2934 Baltimore, died in a local nursing home Friday June 11. He had been a pastor of the St. Paul church in 1891-93 and again from 1926 to 1928.

Born in 1870 in Randolph County, North Carolina, he came to Indianapolis with his parents when only one year old. Deeply religious by nature, he entered the ministry at the age of 19 years and became pastor of the AME Church at Anderson when 21 years of age.

During his long period of service as a minister he was pastor of Allen Chapel AME Church here from 1921 to 1923. He bought the ground on which the present structure stands.

During his pastorate of Allen Chapel AME Church in Terre Haute he effected the rebuilding of that institution.

He also served as presiding elder for two years and as pastor of the AME church at Richmond from 1916 to 1921.

For a time he was pastor of a church at Billings, Mont., returning to the Indiana Conference to complete his years of ministry. He retired in 1948.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Margaret E. Craven; a sister, Mrs. Etta McCulley, both of Indianapolis, and several nieces and nephews.

smartest ranges anyone can own

You owe it to your home, your budget, yourself, to see the Spring Showing of new automatic Gas ranges. The developments of the past few years are, to put it mildly, startling. Such things as automatic timers, automatic pilots, automatic clock controls are standard equipment. Various manufacturers have then gone on to add such features as built-in griddles, waist-high broilers; there are even separate range units fueled by Gas. We don't have space to list everything, but we'll be proud to show you all that's exciting and new. And remember: automatic Gas ranges cost less to buy, install and use.

Indianapolis Schools Take Forward Steps

Acting in line with the U. S. Supreme Court's recent ruling against segregation, the Indianapolis Board of School Commissioners has taken some forward steps that deserve the support and cooperation of every citizen.

One important change is the admission of some 90 Negro pupils, most of whom are in the 7th and 8th grades to School 43 at 150 W. 40th street.

These children have always lived in School 43's district, but because they entered school before the Indiana Anti-Segregated School Law went into effect, hitherto have been compelled to attend School 87, about two miles away at 2411 Indianapolis avenue. They have been transported by bus (when the busses were running). Several years ago a little girl was seriously injured in a bus accident. Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Clarence T. R. Nelson, and the NAACP took the case to the School Board in a battle that was unsuccessful at that time but has now been vindicated.

This newspaper took the position all along that the 7th and 8th grades should have been integrated at the same time as the 1st and 2nd, according to the law. However, this is no time to revive old disputes. The important thing is that the present enlightened school administration is acting sincerely and in good faith to remove vestiges of pupil segregation from the school system.

In this connection we understand also that the involved situation around Schools 19, 34, 72 and 20 on the Southside has been straightened out, with the children to attend the school in their district regardless of race.

These changes will reward the city both materially and spiritually. Doing away with the costly bus transportation will effect a sizeable savings. This is one form of school economy that we wholeheartedly approve of.

The larger gain, however, will be the teaching of full-fledged democracy by the straightforward practice of it.

A certain amount of readjustment will be involved for the children concerned. All the parents and teachers should exercise tact, understanding and above all fair play in the situation. It also is imperative to integrate the teaching staffs of these schools which will have heavily-mixed enrollments.

Congratulations, Kids!

Amidst wars, hearings and heat one somewhat minor note deserves comment, in our opinion. The Attacks minor school senior prom was held at Merrill's Service Club at the Indiana State Fairgrounds—and this was the first time it has been held outside the school gymnasium.

As we understand it, the achievement climaxed something of a campaign by the students. It wasn't a battle, for the administration and faculty were not opposed to the idea—and yet old habits and ways of doing things die hard. For some years now other city schools have been holding their proms at various ballrooms and where not. But the Attacks prom continued to take place in the Attacks gym. And the Attacks youngsters looked out and thought that they, too, would like to branch out in the world a bit as students of the other high schools were doing.

And so this year, it came about.

We also liked that dramatic presentation, "This We Believe," given by the entire graduating class at the Attacks commencement. "The dignity and worth of man," "the dignity of work" and "human rights" were subjects emphasized in the students' mass credo. Somebody at Attacks deserves a hand for this production.

These happenings and many others indicate that we are not only living in one world, but here in Indianapolis are approaching closer to the status of "one city." Segregation is being broken down and is dissolving both from the "outside" and the "inside." Athletics, especially basketball in the IHSAA, has played a great part in this process. The leaders of Attacks have the satisfaction of knowing that their school is now regarded not as "different," but as an outstanding school among sister institutions.

Herman Giving It Back to the Indians?

Gov. Herman (or "Hummon") Talmadge of Georgia has finally admitted there is someone whose judgment he will take on the question of segregation.

Not the U. S. Supreme Court, the highest constituted authority which all other citizens obey. The Supreme Court doesn't bother Herman any more than a fly. Other Americans may have the habit of obedience to the Constitution and laws of the land, but Herman does things differently in Georgia. He will just call out the little ol' state police and the redneck militia and send this U. S. Gov'munt skeddaddling back to Washington, huh.

But Herman has admitted that he is willing to take the opinion of the Creator of the Universe. At least he said, "If it's good enough for God Almighty, it's good enough for me." This seems to put the Creator and Herman on about the same level. It was pretty big of Herman to say it.

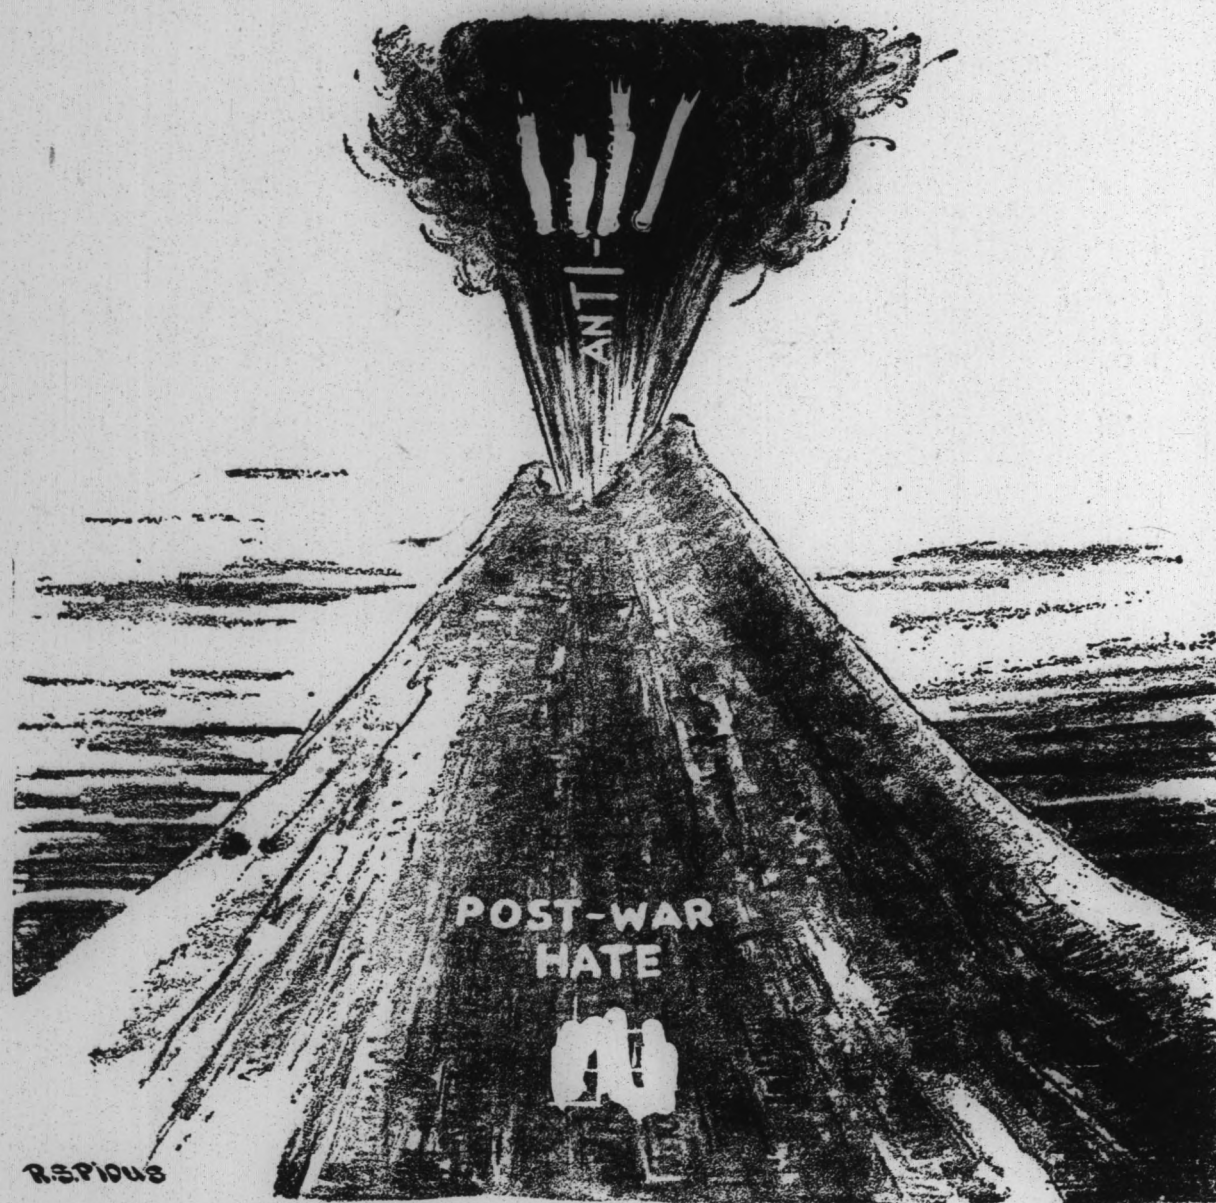

The catch, of course, is that Herman is going to interpret the will of God. Now we will have to call him Rev. Herman Talmadge. And Rev. Herman has discovered that God Himself believes in segregation.

"When God made man," he explains, "He placed the white man in Europe, the black man in Africa, the yellow man in Asia and the red man in the Americas."

Accepting this doctrine of Rev. Herman's, we must assume that sinful man has certainly fouled up God's jimmie design, with the different kinds of people scattered all over the earth as they are now. What, in fact, is Herman himself doing in Georgia? For if the Cracker State is not a part of America politically, it certainly is geographically.

Well, the only thing to do is get all these people back where they came from, in the Almighty's completely segregated world as expounded by Rev. Herman. The entire Western Hemisphere does seem like a lot of room for the Indians, but we've got to get this business straightened out.

We suppose, though, that the homelands of the various races will have something to say about it. What if no country in Europe can be found willing to take Herman back?

"A WORLD PROBLEM THAT MUST BE RESOLVED, IF THERE IS TO BE PEACE."

MISCELLANEOUS MUSINGS

Birmingham's Backward Step

Since the U. S. Supreme Court decision declaring separate schools all over the country to be against the law, Birmingham, Alabama by a vote of three to one has approved an ordinance designed to keep white and colored people apart in numerous definite respects.

MR. JOHNSON

The new law forbids the races to engage together in card playing, dice, dominoes, checkers, softball, basketball, baseball, football, golf and track.

It further declares that the races shall not mingle in swimming pools, beaches, lakes or ponds. Just a few months ago the City Commission voted to allow professional Negro and white baseball and football teams to compete.

THE BIRMINGHAM action clearly is inspired by the school decision and the attitude of its own City Commission.

What effect, if any, it will have on the rest of the South cannot be determined at this time. It is possible, however, that what Birmingham is trying to do will be imitated widely, in Alabama and elsewhere as well.

There also is a chance that Birmingham's efforts will have little or no effect in other southern states.

Birmingham is among the ten largest cities of the South. Its total population is about 330,000, of which 130,000 are colored. Of every 33 persons in the city 20 are white and 13 colored.

Looked at another way, there are exactly 35,000 persons more than half the city's inhabitants and exactly 35,000 fewer Negroes than half the people in Birmingham.

It is likely that Negroes will contest the ordinance in the federal courts but so far I have heard nothing of any steps being taken to do so. They certainly should try to have the degrading law nullified. It seems to be wholly un-called-for because the long-continued separation of the races in the South is likely to go on indefinitely without any compulsion of any kind.

THE BIRMINGHAM STEP can be productive of nothing but harm.

It will intensify already strained racial relationships and hinder efforts that men and women of good will may make to continue and increase more understanding and co-operation between colored and white persons all over the country.

Supporters of the ordinance are said to believe that it will not conflict with the school segregation decree because the ordinance has to do only with a social privilege and not a right.

Hugh Locks, who was one of the most active persons in promoting the new law, believes it to be constitutional and that the courts will so hold.

IT OFTEN is not easy to make clear distinctions between privileges and rights in either theory or practice. A right would seem to be long by nature to any person because he is a human being if for no other reason.

The right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are famous so-called natural rights about which this nation always has made a big ado.

To say to a man "you shall not associate with another man who may be willing and desire to associate with you" is out of harmony with social gains that have been made during the last seven hundred years.

IN ANY CIVILIZED region of the earth one should be free to choose his associates in every respect. No self-respecting person, of course, wishes to force himself on anybody.

But to tell him that he cannot have a friendly game with any human being who wants to play with him is going too far.

The Birmingham people do not seem to be on firm legal grounds. They doubtless are actuated by passion rather than by reason.

IN SECTION 1 of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution says plainly: "No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States"

Those 21 words seem to dispose of the Alabama argument in support of its recent ridiculous action.

ALONG THE COLONIAL FRONT

By A. J. SIGGINS, British Journalist

Black Masters of White Girls

LONDON (ANP)—A few months ago an African was convicted of living on the immoral earnings of white women. The crime was defined as living on the immoral earnings of a woman, but actually the man was living on the earnings of a white girl.

A police witness for the prosecution told the judge that there were "hundreds of thousands of similar cases in the country."

Having investigated some cases myself I can quite believe that the statement was not exaggerated very much; some take less of the girl's earnings.

RECENTLY 700 West Indians from Jamaica came in one ship to seek work in the United Kingdom and those have been followed by two other lots of 127 and 118.

For many years there has been a steady influx of West Indians and Africans to this country as they find more difficulty in finding suitable employment in their own homelands.

There are no signs at all of the flow of immigrants diminishing.

Many come here as stowaways, others with their bare fairs while others come provided with enough cash to see them through a few months. Others, of course, have incomes or funds enough.

FREQUENTLY those who come as stowaways are charged by the shipping company and sentenced to two or three months imprisonment with the option of a fine. Invariably those men go to prison.

When they are released they go on public assistance. As they are British subjects they cannot be deported and are entitled to the dole.

After talks with their friends these new arrivals make up their minds what they intend to do.

Some may find girl friends who do not earn their living in an immoral way, and these help their new-found friend in various ways to live.

SOME WOULD NOT dream of living with a prostitute or with any white girl under any circumstances, and others are glad to have a little friendship and help to see them through a difficult period.

Too many undoubtedly are living on the immoral earnings of British girls and women, and too many will be so disgusted with what they see and hear in this country respecting sex relations and race and color relations that all respect for Britons as spiritual and moral leaders of the Empire and Commonwealth will disappear.

Others will meet decent folk who will strengthen their respect for our race.

LET US DISCOUNT any possibility of exaggeration in the figure given by the police witness and divide it into three.

Let us say that 100,000 British women and girls are practicing prostitution and keeping Africans on the proceeds.

The black girls and women are as much slaves of the men they keep as the black girls and women were slaves in U.S.A.

Their masters are hard on them and drive them to earn more and more as their needs increase.

And among this type, the needs grow quickly as they try to emulate the flashiest of their kind. And they want more girls so have to have money for that.

GAMBLING and other ways of getting rid of "easy money" soon became habits. And the girls and women are driven harder.

The police can do very little as the law is very strict in its protection of innocent people. The police have to have a cast-iron case to procure a conviction.

This unfortunately encour-

Fascism Also Begins At Home

We are so used to the hysterical news coming out of Washington and the capitals of most of our states of the imminent danger that our country is being infiltrated by communists that we are prone to overlook the presence of the seeds of fascism in our midst.

Webster's New World Dictionary defines fascism as "a system of government characterized by a rigid one-party dictatorship, forcible suppression of the opposition (unions and other, especially leftist, parties, minority groups, etc.), . . . belligerent nationalism and racism."

And according to this dictionary those who believe in these principles are properly designated as fascists. We might in simpler language describe the fascist who lives, votes, legislates, and throws his weight around among us.

IN GENERAL, he is a man who hates his brother as Cain hated Abel. He hates him because of his color, his religion, his race, or his ideas.

In America the man who hates Negroes or Jews or unions or Catholics may not know it but he is fascist material.

The Republican who identifies the Democratic administrations of Roosevelt and Truman as "twenty years of treason" as well as the Southern bigot who regards everything non-white or Republican as damyankeeism is a dead ringer for a fascist. THOSE WHO WOULD suspend the Bill of Rights to deny the freedom of speech religion and assembly to those who disagree with them are cut out of the same cloth as those who put Hitler and Mussolini in power.

But even if we rightly assess the danger of politicians and leaders of flag-waving superpatriotic groups of fascist bent we run the risk of overlooking the little fascists in our midst who represent the viable seed of the fascist creed.

We must not forget that there are fascists who are Negroes, or Jews or Catholics or union leaders or religious leaders of various sorts.

THE NEGRO who hates Jews or Catholics or unions as well as the Uncle Toms who do the bidding of the fascist minded racists is as much fascist as members of the Ku Klux Klan or the Dixiecrats.

Likewise the Jew who subscribes to Negrophobia, anti-Catholicism or anti-unionism as well as the anti-semitic Catholic is a very valuable asset to the fascist cause.

The newspaper editor or owner who refused to allow the other side of a question to be heard as well as the preacher, the school official, the union leader, the shop foreman, the fraternal leader of the YMCA or YWCA official who employs autocratic means of imposing his will upon those whom or for whom he serves is a fascist.

PERHAPS the least suspect of fascist leanings is the fellow who spends his time ranting about "Americanism," and the dangers of "Reds" and "Fellow-travellers."

He is the most dangerous of all because anyone who dares to point out his fascist tendencies stands liable to be branded as subversive.

In the final analysis the fascist-minded individual is a person who hates all ideas and those connected with them or trained in them.

His natural ally is the apathy of most Americans toward the administration of their affairs whether social, political, educational, religious or civic.

THE UNION MEMBER or the lodge member who fails to attend the meetings of his group allows it to fall into the hands of the would-be fascist. The citizen who refrains from going to the polls or who fails to follow up the election promises of his elected officials is a dupe for the fascist-minded politician.

The members of the YMCA or YWCA who leave the complete direction of the organization up to employed officials without ever asking for an accounting are fodder for such officials who would be tyrants.

IN THE FIGHT against communism we have the natural acquisitive instinct of a people who pride themselves upon their possessions and are reluctant to share them even with the tax collector.

But against endemic fascism we have no such simple weapon, for those who defend our property rights are apt to deprive us of our civil and human rights under the guise of patriotism, loyalty to the cause or efficiency of operation.

FASCISM is an enemy which does not have to be imported from abroad.

Its seeds are everywhere among us and it thrives in our soil and climate.

Washington Shows The Way

The School Board of Washington, D. C. has set the nation a noble example, by its timely decision to begin integration in the schools of that city now.

When the Washington Board decided to meet the problem head-on instead of looking for loop-holes, as they are currently doing in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia, it showed the possibilities of stalwart leadership and moral courage, the two essential ingredients demanded by the current situation.

North Carolina and Virginia are pitiful, when they take refuge in the specious clause of the Supreme Court decision which does not provide ways and means of implementing the said decision.

The clause that allowed the South and opportunity to redeem itself commendably from the curse of segregation, has been turned by two great states into a great excuse for postponing the inevitable, and for the refuge of southern die-hards.

It is to the South's detriment that these bitter-enders are today in the political saddle and they are proposing to do some "rough riding," so it appears.

NEGROES must be especially cautious in the face of the impending situation; for bitter-enders and die-hards are going to have their inning, which in the end will amount to reprisals against defenseless Negroes. It is hardly probable that such social change as is impending could be effected without great tribulation for somebody and chiefest of these tribulations will be visited upon the Negroes themselves; for this Negroes must be prepared.

A season of serious thinking with a minimum of loose talking would work wonders for the common cause.

In the nature of things, Negroes are as unprepared for the diverse eventualities of the entirely new situation as the whites. Attempts at mutual understanding were never more necessary than now.

THERE is a sense of urgency in the situation that calls for sacrifice and patience and the Christian point of view, all of which will be sorely tested in the crucible of the new situation.

In the first place, the political charlatans and demagogues will have a field day and will do their utmost to circumvent the sovereign laws of a sovereign nation.

They will defy God, the Bible and Jesus Christ and spit in the face of Democracy trying to turn back the hands on the Clock of Time.

They will employ every hellish design to prove that integration is impossible and then they will shout, "I told you so!"

LIKE THE WRATH incurred by the outcome of the Civil War, the wrath wrought by the Supreme Court's recent decision will fall with greatest fury upon Negroes themselves. To the careful student of the situation this is not to be unexpected.

In the second place, the matter of integration cannot be effected overnight, however we may wish that it ages men and girls, but that a person is innocent until proved guilty in a court of law is an old tradition in Britain.

BUT THERE is no doubt that the practice of living on the immoral earnings of girls and women is increasing in this country.

Too many of these females find their lives exciting despite the hard driving of their black masters.

There are now large circles where masters and females can enjoy exciting living; dance halls, bars, dope-dens and vice-variety places offer greater scope of entertainment for the vicious of both races.

Too many young girls and boys are finding in these resorts the "music of a distant drum" that is far more exotic and exciting than any at their local dance halls.

There is always a big crowd at dance halls patronized by Africans and there is no doubt that in these the music and the dancing are far more exciting and "hot" than in the average dance hall.

IT is an adventure to visit those places.

There is always a big crowd at dance halls patronized by Africans and there is no doubt that in these the music and the dancing are far more exciting and "hot" than in the average dance hall.

IT is an adventure to visit those places.

This unfortunately encourcould. One reason the Supreme Court delayed so long its momentous decision was to gradually prepare the nation for it.

Now comes the Washington Board with a plan for gradually perfecting the ways and means of the integrative process.

Negroes have become as allergic to the term "gradual" as the Southern Negrophobes are allergic to such words as "civil rights" and "FEPC."

IF ONE WOULD create frenzy and fury among certain Negrophobes, one has only to use such terms as civil rights and FEPC, and one has a fight on hand. Such terms are the Negrophobes' fighting pieces.

But just as full of fight are many Negroes over the word "gradual."

The social process is a gradual process and all revolutions are preceded by gradual changes that make for revolution. The biological process is gradual.

It all depends upon how we define our word gradual.

When Talmadge says gradual he means "never," when the writer says gradual he means at the earliest possible moment consistent with common sense and science.

The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation—gradually, but it is coming all the while.

WHAT COMES in arithmetic progression today will come with geometric progression tomorrow! A thing wisely begun, even if gradually, will be accelerated sooner or later.

When a Negro church in the deep South, noted for its phenomenal pastoral turn-over was receiving its pastor's resignation which was to take effect "three months hence" a good brother arose in the rear and moved that the resignation take effect "yat now" (right now).

The "yat now" feeling of the Negro is not altogether inconsistent with the gradual approach approved by the Washington, D. C. School Board.

Washington shows the way!

GOOD PARENTS

By ANDY RAZAF For ANP

Here's to good parents who would not Change duties if they could, Who gladly face the many trials

That go with parenthood, Who never let their children feel

Neglected or alone, Who raise and guide them properly,

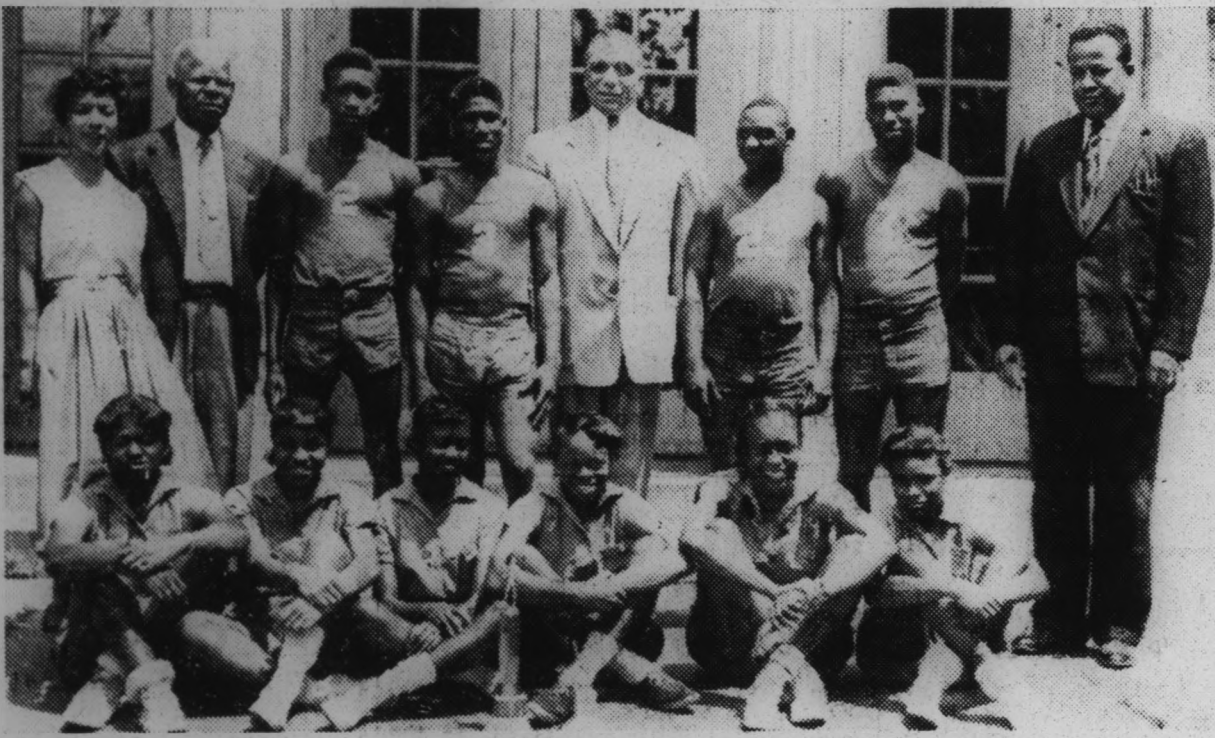

'Til they are fully grown. We need more parents, such as these,

To save the human race, For they can school their young to make

This world a better place. Good parents are the hope of man,

And they are truly blessed; For on God's honor roll above Their names lead all the rest!

Ind. U. Star Joins Cincinnati Redlegs
Bob Robertson, former Indiana University baseball and football star signed with the Cincinnati Redlegs Thursday last week, and will play in the outfield.

He was the leading hitter in the Big Ten this year. The big fellow, whose home is in South Bend, Ind., was assigned to Duluth in Class C Northern League.

Postpone Title Bout
NEW YORK — The Archie Moore-Harold Johnson scrap for the light heavyweight championship, scheduled for July 14 in Madison Square Garden, has been postponed, Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, announced this week.

The IBC official said the Hurricane Jackson, Nino Valdes heavyweight match was moved up to replace the Moore-Johnson bout which probably would be scheduled for the Garden in August.

Clowns Tout New Rookie
ROCHESTER, N. Y. (ANP)—Manager Oscar Charleston believes the Indianapolis Clowns may have the Negro American League's 1954 rookie of the year. The new star is a teen-ager, Paul Laduna, 18, of Mobile, Ala.

In his most recent test, Laduna, a sou'wester, hurled a three hit 8-1 victory over defending NAL champions, the Kansas City Monarchs in Hutchinson, Kan.

The Clowns and Monarchs will be here in Rochester, Sunday, June 20 for a regular NAL tilt for the benefit of the Pride of Rochester Lodge and Queen Anne Chapter Building fund. The two teams will clash again in a night contest, June 22, in Albany.

Another top hurler with the Clowns is Ted Richardson who became the first NAL pitcher to notch five victories as he slammed out a ninth inning homer to win his own game and defeat the Monarchs 8-6 in Wichita, Kan.

ALL-STAR BASEBALL VOTING UNDER WAY

CHICAGO (ANP)—Voting for the 1954 major league all-star baseball game by fans throughout the country has begun. The tilt will be played Tuesday, July 13, at Municipal Stadium in Cleveland.

You may fill in the ballot on this page, or write your own list, and mail or bring it to Sports Editor, The Indianapolis Recorder, 518 Indiana ave., Indianapolis 7, Ind. We will forward your votes to the counting center.

In the big classic the American League leads the National League 12 games to 8, although the Nationals have won the last 4 tilts. Most likely Negro prospects to make teams in each loop are the following stars:

WILLIE MAYS, center fielder, New York Giants, having his greatest season in the big time, now sparking the Giants' battle with the Dodgers for the pennant. . . MONTE IRVIN, Giants' right fielder, a good player and great clutch hitter.

Others with more distant possibilities are the brilliant double-play combination of Shortstop ERNEST BANKS and Second Baseman GENE BAKER of the Chicago Cubs. . . HENRY THOMPSON, Giants' third baseman just hitting his stride. . . JUNIOR GILLIAM, Dodgers' second-sacker. . . TOM ALSTON, St. Louis Cardinals' rookie first baseman. . .

Also playing in the league are Center Fielder JIM PENDLETON, likewise Center Fielder BILL BRUTON, Left Fielder HENRY AARON, and Catcher CHARLEY WHITE, all of the Milwaukee Braves; Second Baseman CURTIS ROBERTS of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Third Baseman CHAR-

Black Regains Old Form With Royals
HAVANA, Cuba (ANP)—Pitcher Joe Black, on option with the Montreal Royals from the Brooklyn Dodgers, apparently is regaining the form that two years ago made him the National League rookie of the year with the Dodgers.

Last week he stopped Havana on two hits as the Royals won the seven-inning night cap of a double header 4 to 1.

He walked nobody and struck out nobody. His International league record is now 1-1.

In a sensational debut, Black was replaced after five innings against the Richmond Rebels. In that tilt he gave up three runs on four hits in five innings, and struck out eight men and walked five. His team evidently lost 7 to 0.

Clear Jackie In Bat Bobble

CINCINNATI (ANP)—Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers last week was cleared in the recent bat throwing incident in Milwaukee in which Jackie tossed his bat into the stands and struck two fans and an usher.

President Warren C. Giles of the National League ruled that he is "convinced beyond doubt" that the incident was accidental. Giles did, however, fine the Brooklyn star $50 for arguing with umpire Leo Balfanz in the game.

The bat throwing was an outcome of an argument between the Dodgers and the umpire because the players claimed he allowed a Milwaukee man a base on balls with a count of only three balls on him.

In announcing his decision, Giles said: "After a thorough investigation of the Robinson incident at Milwaukee June 2, and receipt of a letter of explanation and apology from Jackie Robinson, I have wired him in St. Louis, stating I am convinced beyond doubt that there was no intent whatsoever on his part to cause the bat to be thrown into the stands."

Another Look at Evansville

Comes now a letter from Evansville declaring we were all wet in our recent column about white students attending Lincoln high school.

Informant says there is only one white student at Lincoln, a girl who has adopted Negro parents. (Strikes us that is an interesting story in itself, and one which indicates advancement in human relations.)

There are no white boys attending Lincoln, our correspondent avers, and "Central is the only public school that has a Negro boy in attendance. The boy made the B team in basketball. . . There are absolutely no Negro boys attending Bosse. There are two Negro girls attending Bosse, and they have been treated very well because they are outstanding students in conduct and in academic work."

Your columnist is caught in the middle on this question and will be glad to publish any other comments from the banes of the beautiful Ohio. We desarey there is some valid explanation of these differing advices.

We would like to point out, however, that both accounts of the situation present evidence of school integration in Evansville. The difference is in the extent of integration that is reported—or if you prefer, the speed at which the process is taking place.

There is still no doubt in this writer's mind that within a few years the presenty Negro schools as well as the white schools of the Hoosier state will all be mixed, both as to student body and faculty. If there is a desire for an all-Negro team to win the state basketball championship, better do it in the near future!

A WHITE WOMAN who wishes to remain anonymous tells us she has called another recent column of ours to the attention of Dr. Herman L. Shabler, superintendent of schools. This was the piece in which we published a mother's letter exposing the questionable tactics of a local high school coach. Dr. Shabler informed the lady that he will investigate the matter and if the facts are as set forth, will take appropriate action.

We are glad that the lady, out of a sincere devotion to the ideals of fair play and democracy, has called the matter to the superintendent's notice. We are certain that the business could not be in better hands than those of Dr. Shabler.

Incidentally our purpose in exposing the situation was definitely not to victimize any individual. That was why we did not use anybody's name.

Monarchs Nip Clowns, 9-8

By CHARLES S. PRESTON

There was plenty of "action" as the Kansas City Monarchs edged the Indianapolis Clowns, 9-8, in 10 innings at Victory Field last week before 1,510 fans.

A difference of opinion between Plate Umpire Mark Van Buren and Clowns' First Baseman Henry "Speed" Merchant erupted into an unscheduled wrestling match in the bottom of the 9th.

The bout was broken up by the Clowns' revered manager, Oscar Charleston, and Left Fielder Ray Neil, and Manager Buck O'Neal of the Monarchs.

Van Buren desired to continue the fight, and for several minutes had to be physically restrained from pursuing Merchant into the Clowns' dugout.

According to unconfirmed reports, the fistcluffs were renewed later on Indiana avenue.

The Clowns' female infielder, Miss Connie Morgan, played three innings at second base. Her opposite number, Miss Toni Stone, did not perform for the Monarchs.

Both clubs showed considerable talent in the way of promising rookies as well as seasoned veterans.

The Monarchs held a 1 to nothing lead until the fourth inning when the Clowns exploded for seven runs, aided by several Monarch errors.

The Kansas City baseballers immediately came back with five in the fifth to which they added two in the eighth while the Clowns pushed across one in their half of the frame to tie.

Two walks, a single and a long fly ball scored the winning run in the top of the 10th.

Monarchs . . . 010 050 020 1-8-6-4 Clowns . . . 000 700 010 0-8-8-3 Bell, Mitchell (4), Jones (9) and Taylor; Laduna, Emrora (4), Gaines (7) and Hamilton.

Jones Loses "Fix Attempt" By a Hair
NEW YORK (ANP) — Bobby Jones lost a hairline decision Friday night to second ranking middleweight Joey Giardello in a 10-round televised bout at Madison Square Garden.

Fans booed the unanimous decision lustily. Jones started off slowly, but rallied in the late rounds as Giardello apparently tired. A brutal right in the fifth by Jones slowed the favored Giardello down in the fifth.

This bout attracted nationwide attention because Jones reported an attempted fix, saying he was offered $15,000 to lose. Giardello was an overwhelming favorite to win anyway.

Arrested in connection with the bribe offer was former high ranking heavyweight Clarence Henry.

Clarence Franklin, recovering from a severe industrial accident, is doing a heroic job with the Class C team.

Tuesday night we had to have an unfortunate conversation with a mother who says she does not believe that all boys should be given equal treatment. It's always sad to see a kid who wants to play ball with other boys, being forced to quit by prejudiced parents whose race-hatred the innocent youngster simply cannot understand.

Meridian until his retirement in 1941. He was a native of Armenia. Mrs. Preston's husband, Charles, is a member of the Recorder editorial staff and also sports editor.

Survivors are the widow, Eunice Ashjian; two daughters, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. James Barnett, and two grand-children.

A RETRACTION . . . We inadvertently stated in this column last week that a Mr. Chick Price was with us when we ran into three lovelies at George's Bar. This was in error. . . . The writer knew the ladies and was alone in their company. We are sorry if we caused the gentleman referred to any embarrassment.

Gossip of Movie Lots

By HARRY LEVETTE
HOLLYWOOD (ANP) — ELECTION RESULTS FROM LOCAL PRIMARIES, not yet complete, show that Atty. Walter Gordon, former husband of Ethel Sissie, beautiful show life figure, got a heavy vote from the movie and stage crowd, with whom Walter is popular. Ivy Anderson's widow, Marquee Neal, was running second to Gordon, as the polls closed. Incidentally Neal fell heir to Ivy's large income properties, including the swank IVY'S CHICKEN SHACK on Vernon near Central.

The Rev. Edgar Johnson, who preaches more theatrical bombast and showmanship with daily sound trucks etc., than the other three Negroes after the job, seemed far from unseating incumbent Gus Hawkins from his 20-year assembly seat from the 62nd district. THAT PRE-ELECTION FIST AND DALLAS SWITCH-BLADE battle in the lobby of a swell hotel on West Adams, between two newsmen politicians, was a one-round humdinger.

According to Abie Robinson, combination sports editor-distributor for the California Eagle, he is suing Al Mills of Houston, formerly with the Coast Courier, for a huge sum. His statements to the local colored papers last week charged that Mills tackled him because he had blasted the Houstonian in his column. He charged that the other man, much older, and no larger than he, had held a knife on him with his left hand, and slugged him viciously and plentifully with his right.

Said Mills to the Star-Review. "He had it coming; I'd do it again." They say the combatants were warring over political loot, lush for the moment, if you can get it. BLOCK-LONG LINE SEEKS ROLES IN "CARMEN JONES" "YOURS MODESTLY" is taking the bows this Ayem for staring lines a block long outside the office of Jasper Weldon where, as agent for Central Casting bureau, he interviewed and signed some 700 applicants for supporting roles in "Carmen Jones."

Handed the huge task by his superiors just a week before the starting date of June 9, and too late for the seven local colored weeklies, hard-working Weldon was in a quandary. Desperately he called me, and hurriedly I tested the friendship of the fellows I have long known on the dailies. Results: three and four column headlines telling of the casting in all five metropolitan dailies, followed by announcements in all seven of the colored weeklies. And the grand rush was on.

My work, however, of preparing the stories and planting them was shared by Miss Juanita Webster, UCLA student of journalism and dramatics, recently also of Pruitt's College of Business and at present receptionist and secretary to the outstanding German physician and surgeon, Dr. Ghent. She'll get a leave and work in the avish musical also.

HOWDY, PARDNER: Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, on a goodwill tour of the United States, was greeted by a towering 6-foot-6 cowboy as he visited the Chicago stock yards recently. The cowboy is Cliff Messoulz of Montana. As in New York, where he landed, the Lion of Judah was roundly cheered by the people of the Windy City. (Newspress Photo)

Convict Barman In Shooting

A bartender in a Northside club was given 90 days on the state farm and fined $25 and costs Monday when he was found guilty of shooting in the city limits.

Eddie Frazier, 24, 858 W. 10th received the punishment when he appeared before Judge Scott A. McDonald in Municipal Court 4. Frazier was accused of firing a shot at Lonnie Mauney, 23, 2046 Highland Place, Saturday night after a disturbance in the 303 Club, 303 W. 21st.

Mathney allegedly caused the disturbance and was thrown out of the place by Frazier. When Mathney forced his way back into the tavern Frazier went behind the bar and got a revolver.

Frazier put Mathney out again but as he did so the disorderly patron grabbed his arm and pulled him through the exit onto the sidewalk, it was reported.

A struggle ensued as the two men grappled for the revolver. A shot was heard and bystanders scurried for cover.

Frazier said the gun was accidentally discharged and that he had struck Mathney over the head with the weapon in an attempt to stop him.

Arrested for disorderly conduct, Mathney told police he had been grazed by the shot. Frazier said the wounds Mathney said were inflicted by the revolver shot were actually the result of his blow to the head.

Mathney was fined $25 and costs or being disorderly.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

LOCAL CAT MAKES GOOD: The sensational Le Roy Vinegar, bass, formerly with Duke Hampton, Jimmie Cole, Roger Jones and other great combos in the Midwest, recently received a letter from Art Tatum, one of the nation's top 88ers, if not the best, according to many named bandleaders and sidemen. The letter reads in part: "I am trying to iron out a West coast route for us. I like your work and would like to have you as a member of the trio. Will call you from the coast later."—At this writing LeRoy has expected the job and will be on his way to the big time. Naptown has done it again.

SPEAKING OF GREAT DOGHOUSE CATS: Have you dug Harold Goonch yet with Willis "Hammond" Dyer, currently at the Cat on Club here? . . . Well, the cat is real gone. The rhythm section is one of the most powerful in the city with Oliver "K" Napier with his fine beat on the drums and the bossman at the organ. The cats move you and how, not forgetting Glenn "Buddy" Douglass on tenor sax. He has a tone like a baritone and is also the arranger for the group.

THE BIG HEAD: There is a certain young bandleader around town who is sporting the SWELL HEAD. What have you done so great to make you hat so small? Don't you think that you should learn to read music first? None of your sidemen like you, believe me when I tell you. Get on the ball if you expect to make a success out of the music business. I hear that you have tried to put pressure on certain people (if you dig me). Turnabout is fair play. . . Watch yourself.

TURF BAR: Sonny Johnson, his drums and All-Sax crew are currently appearing at this great spot. A few of the stars included are: Pookie Johnson, tenor sax; Monk Montgomery, bass, and Debbie Andrews featured vocalist. Most of the musicians were formerly with "Lamp."

ATTENTION OUT OF TOWN PROMOTORS: Many of our local bands, combos and etc. are giving in other local jurisdictions and are not receiving the "RIGHT BREAD." For your information here is the AFM price list: Minimum scale for Friday and Saturday nights only: Sidemen, one hour, $11.00; two hours, $13.00; three hours, $15.00; four hours, $17.00, leader 50 percent more than sideman's scale. Transportation at a minimum: 8 cents per mile per car, or 2 cents per mile per person if more than four persons travel in one car. The bandleader also pays 10 percent of that local's scale for National Traveling Surcharge. He should receive a large enough guarantee to cover all expenses without going into his pocket.

UNKNOWN'S GO NAME: Two named bands with personnel problems recently found a couple of "unknowns" saving the day. Woody Herman landed in Boston at certain time with his band still on the road. An employee of a local record store stepped up to play the drums, and three sidemen jammed until the rest of the show unit arrived. Ralph Flanagan found himself in a similar predicament in San Francisco. He needed a trombonist and let it be known on Les Malloy's TV show. Two minutes later one Will Sudmeyer responded and was hired.

ORDAN MACRAE, vocalist, is now breaking in a new night club act which teams him with wife Sheila. MacRae is currently riding high with disk "C'est Magnifique," from "Can-Can" . . . Restrictions on the manufacture of color TV have been lifted by the National Production Authority. Color TV for theatres, however, appears to be the only branch of telecasting that will get the tint in the immediate future. Variety states the Interstate Commerce Commission would like to see color TV move into areas where TV is not yet functioning so that consumers will not have to switch over later from black and white.

POOLSIDE MANNER: "Melody Ballroom" WFBZ deejay show is being aired from Baltimore's largest swimming pool, Meadowbrook. Ralph Phillips and Bill LeFevre handle the platters and are available for light life saving—if it doesn't interfere with the commercials. (Smile.)

AMATEUR ENTERTAINERS: Here is your chance to make good in the musical world. The 6th annual City Parks Amateur Talent Contest will begin next month. It will be open to boys and girls, 20 years old and under. ALL AMATEUR ENTERTAINERS WILL BE ELIGIBLE to compete and there will be no entry fee. You can register in the park nearest your home with the park supervisor at least a week before the starting contest date namely July 6.

THE RECORDS: (ANP)—Lester "Pres" Young, tenor sax great with Oscar Peterson's trio assisting has two new albums namely, "Tea For Two," "Indiana," "Ad Lib Blues," and "Just You Just Me." Flip sides are "There'll Never Be Another You," "On the Sunny Side of the Street," "I Can't Get Started With You," and "Almost Like Being in Love." (Clef.)

"The Hits of Kap Starr," a 10-incher, which includes some of the top hits by La Starr during recent years. All of these were counted among her best—"Wheel of Fortune," "Come a Long a Love," "Three Letters," "Barnyard Boogie," "I Waited a Little Too Long," "Kay's Lament," "Half a Photograph," and "Fool, Fool Fool," (Capitol).

Ella Fitzgerald's latest is "Meracholy Me" (Decca) . . . On the Norman 10 inches we have "Swing With Johnny Hodges," a real topper. Hodges and his crew of ex-Ellingtonians, Basie-ites, etc., leap brightly with such items as "Hodgepodge," "Jappa," "My Reward," "Something To Put Your Foot To," "Wham," "Latino," "Through For the Night," and "Sheik of Araby."

MORE MILLER MONEY: Dead 10 years, Glenn Miller is still a top money maker. From 1939 to 1944, Miller earned $500,000 in royalties from RCA Victor. Since 1944, however, his estate has earned $400,000 in royalties—most of it within the last year. . . Dick Contino, who usually pushes and pulls on an accordion, warmed up recently on his vocal pipes and will become a singer on Mercury wax. He still plans to keep the accordion.

THE UPBEAT SAYS PLAY IT COOL THESE HOT NIGHTS AND DAYS BECAUSE THERE WILL BE COOLER ONES COMING. . .

P & P Club Re-Opens With A Bang

LYNN HOPE is shown (in turban) with Joe Loco, mambo star with the new hit record "Brazil," which is rated as tops. Loco will tour this summer with King Cole. The Hope combo with Stan Kenton as a extra added attraction.

The new and beautiful P and P Club, located at 438 Indiana Avenue, re-opened a few days back to a capacity crowd, and all members and friends are urged to come out over the weekend and enjoy the fun and frolic in a quiet and pleasant atmosphere.

The ritzy club specializes in popular priced drinks, and promises you a good time anytime you attend. Remember their slogan:— "A nice place for nice people—A well equipped place for well behaved people" plus a fine cuisine. The club also boasts of improved dancing facilities.

The popular "Gertrude Collins" Warfield is president, and her equally popular husband, Lewis Warfield is manager. Come out over the weekend and meet these fine people in a fine club.

DOROTHY DANDRIDGE TO STAR IN 'CARMEN JONES'

By HARRY LEVETTE

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (ANP)—Glamorous Dorothy Dandridge, once declared out of the cast, has been signed up to star in the movie version of "Carmen Jones," to be produced by Otto Preminger.

Co-stars in the famed musical adaptation of the immortal Bizet opera "Carmen," will include Harry Belafonte and Pearl Bailey. Destined to be the most lavish musical ever filmed in Hollywood, "Carmen Jones," will feature 700 singers, dancers and actors in supporting roles. Shooting will be under the Carle banner June 9.

The pic will be filmed on the RKO lot and released by 20th Century-Fox.

James Weldon, casting agent for Central Casting bureau, has begun interviews for the gigantic cast. The picture will use more Negro actors than any previous movie.

Miss Dandridge, an MGM star last year, appeared in "Bright Road" and "Remains to Be Seen" for MGM. To appear in "Carmen Jones," she had to cancel a number of personal appearance agreements. While in Hollywood she also is slated to appear in "Empire" for Ida Lupino and Collier Young.

She was selected over many other top artists for the title role.

"BLOODY MARY" AT PALACE THEATER

NEW YORK (ANP)—Juanita Hall, "Bloody Mary" of South Pacific, is a busy person these days.

She not only headlines a new eight-act bill at the Palace theatre, she is appearing at Drift In, a supper club.

In commenting on her performance at the Palace, one critic said in part:

"A nostalgic opener medley of old Duke Ellington numbers makes for a tepid warm-up. But when she gets into 'Happy Talk' from 'South Pacific' and a rousing 'Ball Hail' finale, she really sends the customers."

DANCIN' DEMONS . . . Paul and Chester, known professionally as Leonard and Leonard, Naptown's gift to the dancing world. . . The boys are currently wowing patrons at the Capitol theater in New York City. They'll remain in the Big Apple for several weeks before starting on their western tour. The act is under the personal management of the Gale Agency, one of the largest booking agencies in the nation. They expect to be in Naptown for the annual Recorder Christmas benefit show in December.

Nick's Ballet Negre In Haiti

PORT-AU-PRINCE (ANP)—The American dance troupe, "Ballet Negre," headed by Walter Nick is back in Haiti after a very successful Latin American tour.

Instead of returning to New York, the group plans to do an indefinite stay here gathering ideas for a full length Haitian ballet, as well as a series of shorter dances.

On their previous visit here last month the dancers performed to enthusiastic Rex theatre audiences and also produced shows at the beautiful Cabane Choucoune night club and the Theatre du Verduere.

Nick, a graduate of Howard University, is a former member of the Katherine Dunham troupe. He taught in her New York dancing school before starting his own dance group, "Ballet Negre."

JOSEPHINE PREMICE AT HOLLYWOOD CLUB

HOLLYWOOD (ANP)—Calypso singer Josephine Premice is playing her second engagement at the Bar of Music here.

Her rendition of "Break Me" has the audience calling for more.

British Slay 100 Maus In Extermination Drive

NAIROBI, Kenya — More than 100 Mau Maus were killed by jittery British Security Forces in a four-day drive against the dreaded secret order this week.

The murderous man-hunt was inspired by the alleged Mau slay-ing of an English woman operator of a kindergarten school and a farmer. The woman, it was reported, was strangled to death when she went outside to investigate the barking of dogs. The farmer was shot from ambush while driving his car along a road near his farm.

Several weeks ago the native population of the Kikuyu tribe which numbers about 1,500,000 were induced by the British to go looking for the Mau Mau.

MORE THAN 7,000 tribe members, men, women and children used long knives and sticks to search the underbrush in the area in the Nyeri district, looking for Mau Mau.

Virtually the entire population turned out saying they wanted to "seek the Mau mau on location."

Nothing, however so far has prevented the spread of or reduced the dread and intensity of the guerilla warfare that has this section of Africa in a pincher-like grip.

The effect has been far reaching.

The Mau Mau anti-white society not only has upset the economic status of Kenya, it has placed a burden on that of Tanganyika and Uganda, neighboring East African territories of Britain. And the latter two are beginning to complain.

Tanganyika and Uganda are bound to Kenya in a customs union. Import duties have had to be increased sharply to provide the Kenya government with funds because of the chaotic conditions of Kenya.

Both Tanganyika and Uganda today are struggling with less income and must pay higher taxes through import duties so that Kenya can increase its income to meet part of its obligations.

Kenya, however, still has the highest standard of living.

NO PROBLEM HERE—For directors of the Rose Park playground in the Georgetown section of Washington, the Supreme court decision on segregation was like "locking the barn door after . . ."
They had practised integrated play for the past six years, and from the happy comrade of Arnold Brice and Bromley K. Smith, both 8, it has been a successful experiment. (Newspress Photo)

What makes a Lucky taste better?

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

"I've been smoking Luckies for years," says C. C. Dejoie, Jr., "because I like the way they taste. They taste better."

It's easy to understand why Luckies taste better. As you know, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—brings Luckies' fine tobacco to its peak of flavor . . . tones up this light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. That's our story: a Lucky tastes better because it's the cigarette of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.
